

The Association for Financial Professionals® (AFP) is pleased to announce that < INSERT CTP's NAME > has been granted the highly-regarded designation of Certified Treasury Professional® (CTP). In doing so,
<INSERT MR./MS. + NAME > brings the highest level of expertise and distinction in treasury management to <insert employer name>.

Recognizing the unique skills and wide-ranging knowledge required of treasury professionals, AFP® implemented the certification program in 1986 to define the standards in the corporate treasury and cash management profession. The comprehensive certification exam is periodically reviewed, updated and expanded by an AFP appointed committee of corporate treasury experts to reflect the on-going changes within the profession.

In addition to meeting the program's education and experience requirements, those awarded the CTP designation must complete a minimum of 36 hours of continuing professional education in corporate treasury, finance or accounting every three years to remain certified.

More and more employers, faced with critical staffing decisions, consider the CTP credential an added value to current and prospective employees. Employers are confident that holders of the credential have demonstrated the knowledge and skills required to perform competently in today's complex treasury environment

About AFP

Headquartered outside Washington, D.C., the Association for Financial Professionals (AFP) is the professional society that represents finance executives globally. AFP established and administers the Certified Treasury Professional and Certified Corporate FP&A Professional credentials, which set standards of excellence in finance. The quarterly AFP Corporate Cash Indicators serve as a bellwether of economic growth. The AFP Annual Conference is the largest networking event for corporate finance professionals in the world.
